

Report: अन्तर्राष्ट्रीय दिव्यांगजन दिवस, Zakir Husain Delhi College (University of Delhi)

Date: December 03, 2022

The United Nations announced that 1981 was the "International Year for Disabled Persons." The international community celebrated the day of December 03, the International Day of Disabilities, after the year 1991. The Enabling Unit, Zakir Husain Delhi College, has organized a one-day event for the Divyang Students of our colleges of University of Delhi in association with "SAKSHAM" and World of University Services, Delhi University Chapter. We have tried to create an interactive platform for our Divyang Students through this event.

On this occasion, Chief Guest was Dr. Amit Sharma, Department of Sanskrit, SPM College.

Our Principal, Prof. Narendra Singh, has inaugurated the event with Dr. Savita Singh (Convener, Enabling Unit). Also Dr. Amod Kumar (Department of Zoology, University of Delhi), Mr. Hemchand Pandey, and several other teachers and research scholars from other colleges were present at the event. The highlights of the day were:

1. Rangoli Competition
2. Poetry Competition
3. Singing Competition
4. Extempore.

Approximately 100 students have participated in different activities around the Different Colleges from Delhi University. We have distributed first, second and third prizes for each competition, including consolation prizes. The organizing Committee for the event: Prof. G.S. Tuteja, Dr. Savita, Dr. Leela Gautam, Ms. Pratima Negi. We have put some of the photographs of the event on the college website and facebook account.
